

Becker's Hospital Review Names 50 Critical Access Hospitals to Know for 2016

CHICAGO (July 11, 2016, 10 a.m. CDT) — Becker's Hospital Review is pleased to release the 2016 edition of its "Critical Access Hospitals to Know" list, highlighting 50 of the nation's 1,332 certified critical access hospitals. Becker's recognizes critical access hospitals that have demonstrated excellence in caring for their communities.

Hammond-Henry Hospital is named in the prestigious group "50 Critical Access Hospitals to Know" by Becker's Hospital Review. This is the second year in a row that Hammond-Henry has received this recognition.

Becker's selected critical access hospitals for inclusion based on rankings and awards from respected organizations, including iVantage Health Analytics, Healthgrades, the National Rural Health Association, Truven Health Analytics, Women's Choice Award and the Leapfrog Group. Hammond-Henry earned recognition from one or more of these organizations within the past two years.

Jeff Lingerfelt, CEO stated "Becker's Hospital Review is well regarded throughout the health care community and this national recognition for our hospital is an honor. Receiving this award for the second year shows Hammond-Henry's commitment to its vision to provide "medical excellence close to home."

The hospitals included on this list serve a variety of regions across the United States. Due to their predominantly rural locations, these organizations play a crucial role in the health and well-being of their respective communities.
